

~~At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County on the 19th day of May, 1987, the following order was made and entered, to-wit:~~

Committee on Legal Ethics of the
West Virginia State Bar, Complainant

17677 vs.

Wayne T. Luff, a member of the West Virginia
State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, May 15, 1987, came The Committee on Legal Ethics of the West Virginia State Bar, by Jack M. Marden, and Sherri Goodman Dusic, its attorneys, and presented to the Court its verified complaint praying for annulment of respondent's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia, together with an Affidavit executed by said respondent voluntarily consenting to his disbarment pursuant to Section 27, Article VI of the By-Laws of The West Virginia State Bar.

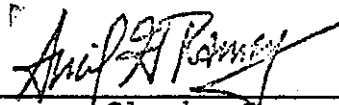

Upon consideration of which it is ordered that the verified complaint of The Committee on Legal Ethics of the West Virginia State Bar, together with the affidavit referred to above, be, and the same are hereby filed; and due to the entry of respondent's guilty plea to Count I of a nine count indictment of forgery with intent to defraud before the Circuit Court of Cabell County, and further due to the entry of respondent's affidavit voluntarily consenting to his disbarment, the Court is of opinion that the respondent, Wayne T. Luff, has been guilty of violating the Code of Professional Responsibility, and that his license to practice law in the State of West Virginia should be annulled.

Accordingly, it is therefore adjudged and ordered that the license and authority of the respondent, Wayne T. Luff, to practice law in the State of West Virginia, be, and the same is hereby revoked and annulled.

Service of a copy of this order upon the respondent, Wayne T. Luff, by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents hereof.
