

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 18th day of May, 1988, the following order was made and entered.

Committee on Legal Ethics of
The West Virginia State Bar, Complainant

vs.) No. 18417

George B. Vieweg, III, a member of
The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, May 12, 1988, came the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar, by Jack M. Marden and Cynthia Santoro Gustke, its attorneys, and presented to the Court its recommendation that this Court accept respondent's voluntary resignation as an active member of The West Virginia State Bar.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and does hereby accept the voluntary resignation of George B. Vieweg, III, as an active member of The West Virginia State Bar.

Accordingly, it is therefore Adjudged and Ordered that the license and authority of the respondent, George B. Vieweg, III, to practice law in the State of West Virginia, be, and the same is hereby revoked and terminated until further order of this Court under the following conditions: (1) he shall not be permitted to petition for reinstatement for a period of five years from the date of this order; (2) notice shall be given to any parties who have filed a complaint against him with the West Virginia State Bar Ethics Committee of their opportunity to oppose any petition for reinstatement; (3) if he is convicted, by verdict or plea, of any felony prior to petition for reinstatement, this voluntary resignation will automatically be converted to a disbarment under the applicable rules of the West Virginia State Bar; (4) he shall not be permitted to petition for reinstatement prior to the submission of satisfactory proof to the Ethics Committee that he has attended at least three hundred meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous per year during the time of his resignation; (5) he shall obtain a sponsor in Alcoholics Anonymous whose name shall be submitted to the Ethics Committee during the time of his resignation, and he shall promptly advise the Ethics Committee of any change in sponsorship; (6) he shall give his sponsor permission to consult with or be consulted by the Ethics Committee; and, (7) he shall submit to random testing as directed by the Ethics Committee during his period of resignation in order to ascertain whether he is using alcohol or other mood-altering substances.

Service of a copy of this order upon the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents hereof.
