

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 30th day of November, 1994, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Complainant

vs.) No. 22584

Joseph C. Cometti, a suspended member of
The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

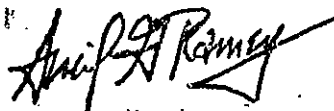

On a former day to-wit, October 6, 1994, came the complainant, the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by Sherri D. Goodman, its attorney, pursuant to Rule 3.10, Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, and presented to the Court its written recommended disposition in the above-captioned proceeding, recommending that (1) respondent's, Joseph C. Cometti, license to practice law in the State of West Virginia be suspended for an additional six-month period of time, with said suspension to end on January 30, 1995; (2) respondent be permitted to petition for reinstatement on or after November 30, 1994, and that he be entitled to a hearing on his petition for reinstatement within sixty days after submission of his application for same; (3) respondent's period of supervision be enlarged from the original six months to twelve months if petition for reinstatement is granted, wherein respondent not be allowed to engage in the solo practice of law but must work as an employee under the direct supervision of another lawyer who is in good standing with the West Virginia State Bar; and (4) respondent reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs and expenses incurred in the investigation of this matter in the amount of Eighty-Eight Dollars and Thirty-Seven Cents ($88.37).

There being heard no objection, pursuant to Rule 3.11, Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, it is hereby ordered that the written recommended disposition of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board be, and it hereby is, adopted. It is therefore ordered that (1) respondent's, Joseph C. Cometti, license to practice law in the State of West Virginia be suspended for an additional six-month period of time, with said suspension to end on January 30, 1995; (2) respondent be permitted to petition for reinstatement on or after November 30, 1994, and that he be entitled to a hearing on his petition for reinstatement within sixty days after submission of his application for same; (3) respondent's period of supervision be enlarged from the original six months to twelve months if petition for reinstatement is granted, wherein respondent not be allowed to engage in the solo practice of law but must work as an employee under the direct supervision of another lawyer who is in good standing with the West Virginia State Bar; and (4) respondent reimburse the Lawyer Disciplinary Board for the costs and expenses incurred in the investigation of this matter in the amount of Eighty-Eight Dollars and Thirty-Seven Cents ($88.37). Chief Justice Brotherton absent.
