

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 29th day of September, 1994, the following order was made and entered:

Lawyer Disciplinary Board, Complainant

vs.) No. 22444

William Matthews, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, July 27, 1994, came the complainant, the Lawyer Disciplinary Board, by Teresa A. Tarr, its attorney, pursuant to Rule 3.10, Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Board, and presented to the Court its written recommended disposition in the above-captioned proceeding, recommending that the formal charges be dismissed with the complainant reserving the right to reopen the case in the event the respondent reapplies for admission to practice law in the State of West Virginia.

There being heard neither consent nor objection from the respondent pursuant to Rule 3.11, Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Board, it is hereby ordered that the written recommended disposition of the Lawyer Disciplinary Board be, and it hereby is, adopted. It is therefore ordered that the formal charges in the above-captioned proceeding be, and they hereby are, dismissed. It is further ordered that the complainant, in the event the respondent reapplies for admission to practice law in the State of West Virginia, has leave to reopen this case. Chief Justice Brotherton absent.

Service of a copy of this order upon all parties herein shall constitute notice of the contents herein.
