

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 16th day of February, 1994, the following order was made and entered:

The Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar, Complainant

vs.) No. 22136

Charles Scott Durig, a member of The
West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, February 14, 1994, came the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar, by Sherri D. Goodman, its attorney, and presented to the Court its verified complaint praying for a suspension of the respondent's, Charles Scott Durig, license to practice law in the State of West Virginia for a period of four months with automatic reinstatement; that he be required to undergo counseling and attend a support group; that his practice be supervised upon reinstatement, and that he reimburse the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the investigation of this proceeding in the amount of Eight Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars and Fifty-Three Cents ($899.53), together with the record of proceedings before the Committee, including the Hearing Panel's adoption of the Subcommittee Report, the Subcommittee Report, the statement of charges, the answer and the various pleadings and exhibits filed with the Committee, as provided by Part D, Article VI, of the Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of The West Virginia State Bar, and moved the Court to issue a rule to said respondent directing him to show cause why an order should not be entered suspending his license to practice law in the State of West Virginia for a period of four months with automatic reinstatement; that he be required to undergo counseling and attend a support group; that his practice be supervised upon reinstatement, and that he reimburse the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the investigation of this proceeding in the amount of Eight Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars and Fifty-Three Cents ($899.53).

Upon consideration whereof, it is ordered that the verified complaint of the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar, together with the papers and documents referred to above, be filed. It is further ordered that the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of the respondent be, and it hereby is, suspended for a period of four months, effective March 1, 1994, with automatic reinstatement; that he undergo counseling and attend a support group; that his practice be supervised upon reinstatement; and he reimburse the Committee on Legal Ethics of The West Virginia State Bar for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the investigation of this proceeding in the amount of Eight Hundred Ninety-Nine Dollars and Fifty-Three Cents ($899.53).

It is finally ordered that the service of a copy of this order upon the respondent shall have the same effect as the service of a formal rule.
