STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a Regular Term of the Supreme Court of Appeals continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on the 19th day of November, 2003, the following order was made and entered:

Office of Disciplinary Counsel, Petitioner

vs.) No. 31621

Geraldine Roberts, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, Respondent

On a former day, to-wit, November 14, 2003, came the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, by Rachael L. Fletcher, its attorney; and the respondent, Geraldine Roberts, by John E. Busch, her attorney, and presented to the Court, pursuant to Rule 3.23 of the West Virginia Rules of Lawyer Disciplinary Procedure, their joint petition seeking the immediate administrative suspension of the license to practice law in the State of West Virginia of the respondent, Geraldine Roberts, a member of The West Virginia State Bar, and that any other complaints filed against the respondent be held in abeyance.

Upon consideration whereof, the Court is of opinion to and doth hereby grant said petition. It is therefore ordered that the respondent's license to practice law in the State of West Virginia be, and it hereby is, suspended indefinitely.

It is further ordered that Lawyer Disciplinary Board v. Geraldine Roberts, No. 31511, be, and it hereby is, held in abeyance until further order of the Court.

Service of a copy of this order upon the respondent and petitioner shall constitute sufficient notice of the contents herein.
